Partnership in Missions

Hunter Uplinger

Hunter Uplinger, our missionary we support at Miracle Mountain has had busy a few months. In February, she traveled to Lafayette, Indiana to take part in the Biblical Counseling Training Conference with Faith church. Here she learned new skills to be able to disciple those around her. In March, she went to Somerville, Alabama to host a CHA (Certified Horsemanship Association) event. She learned about many things including grading and evaluating and counts it a blessing that she was able to attend. Pastor Joel asked her to tell a little about the BIT program that she runs during the summer at Miracle Mountain. It stands for Barn In-Training and is a three-week program for girls ages 15-17. They learn behind the scenes about what goes on in the barns. She has four girls signed up for this summer. She is grateful that she has a church behind her, praying for her. She ends on this note: She got engaged to a wonderful young man.
